

Ramp Interchange EDI Key Features and Functions

The following list summarizes the key features and functions provided by Ramp Systems Interchange and the key advantages gained by using Ramp Systems Interchange as compared to other solutions.

Technical Capabilities

Interchange provides complete and fully configurable support for the following business documents

- X12 EDI and all subsets (UCS, VICS)
- UN/EDIFACT
- XML (RosettaNet, BizTalk, Custom)
- Customer and application specific files (Excel, Flat Files)
- Complete SQL/Database Integration

Interchange enables business and application documents to be exchanged using the following mechanisms

- EDIINT (AS1, AS2, AS3)
- FTP
- HTTP
- SMTP/POP3
- RosettaNet
- ODBC/JDBC
- VAN (Value Added Network)

System Architecture

- Flexible Framework
- Easy Configuration
- Rapid Deployment
- Platform Independence

Application Adapters

Interchange also offers complete integration into and out of any relational database and offers pre-built adapters to several commonly used business applications.

Design and Maintenance Tools

Interchange provides the following integrated tools for designing, implementing and operating an eCommerce and/or Integration platform

- Visual Process.
- Document tracking, including data element tracking.
- Automated business document routing and processing based on configurable rules.
- Pre-loaded, fully configurable document standards.
- Pre-loaded, fully configurable application interfaces for commonly used systems.
- Integrated Version Control for easy maintenance and risk management.
- Fully functional Web based administration.

Key Advantages

The following list summarizes the key advantages of using Ramp Systems Interchange over other competitive offerings:

- Support Services are provided 24 x 7 x 365 and support calls are included in your yearly maintenance fees.
- Faster, easier, more intuitive implementation of business requirements
  - Significantly lower ongoing consulting costs
  - Decreased reliance on technical specialists by enabling business experts to perform implementation
- Increased Performance and Reliability
  - Better service to customers
  - Significantly reduced time spent resolving issues
  - Significantly lower ongoing consulting costs
- Enhanced visibility of eCommerce transactions

- Enables tracing and reporting for eCommerce
- Elimination of Van Services - Vans are not required with Ramp Systems.
- Long term cost of ownership is a lot less than most integration tool sets on the Market today.
- Ramp solution is all inclusive; when you purchase it you will never again have a need to purchase additional integration software or capabilities.
- Return on Investment can be measured in months, not years.
- Ramp Systems provides more internal control by providing in-house training and mapping capabilities.
- Annual support Fees are locked in for the first three years.